4. In November 1948 the Fushun Mining Bureau of the Northeast China Industry Department sought to retrieve refinery and mining equipment and began to restore the production of oil. Its achievement is as follows:
- a. 1948 : Drafted and indoctrinated 125 technicians, including 13 Japanese formerly employed by the Fushun oil industry.
  - b. January 1949: Resumption of oil production.
  - c. June 1949 : Inspection and assistance by five Soviets in the restoration of the original refinery equipment.
  - d. March 1950 : Decision by the Northeast China Industry Department for a large-scale reconstruction program.
  - e. July 1950 : Ordered 100-ton furnaces from the USSR to replace damaged ones.
  - f. Early 1951 : Began construction of new plant buildings.
  - g. June 1952 : Installation of old and new equipment and start of large-scale production.

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] reported monthly production of crude oil at Fushun as 9,800 tons and that of gasoline 4,363 tons.

25X1

2. [REDACTED] Comment. Probably motor oil.

25X1

[REDACTED] Comment. It is not clear whether this is a lubricant or a fuel oil.

3. [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] Fushun Mining Bureau [REDACTED] one of five ad hoc organizations of the Ministry of Industry, Northeast People's Government, for the control of nationalized industries in Manchuria. The Northeast People's Government was formed on 27 August 1949 and the creation of the Fushun Mining Bureau prior to this date is questionable.
